MULMUR RESIDENTS SPEAK OUT AGAINST ARBOUR FARMS

by Brad Holden

One by one at last weekend's public meeting on the subject, residents of Mulmur Township stood to express their dismay with Arbour Farms, a proposed gravel pit that would add an average of 16 truck trips per summer daylight hour to the traffic on Airport Road.

The potential for dangerous driving conditions on the narrow, hilly thoroughfare was the number one concern of the roughly 150 people who attended the meeting, but it was not the only issue; people asked questions about the project's noise impacts, its effects on groundwater in the area, its effects on the natural environment and the likelihood of the site being rehabilitated as promised.

Not one person stood to speak in favour of the proposal, and a fair amount of anger and indignation was directed at proponent Adam Krehm, who did not formally address the crowd and only stood at the end of the meeting to introduce himself in response to requests from the audience.

Outlining the project on behalf of Krehm and answering questions from those present was Brian Zeman, a partner with MSBC Planning, the firm shepherding Arbour Farms' Aggregate Resources Act application and its rezoning and official plan amendment applications before Mulmur Township.

The topic Saturday was the Mulmur applications, which would see 41.7 of the 80 hectares that Krehm owns on the east side of Airport Road between 20th Sideroad and County Road 21 redesignated from "Rural" and "Natural Area" to "Extractive Industrial" in the Township's Official Plan and rezoned from "Rural" and "Environmental Protection" to

Mulmur audience united against Arbour Farms proposal

“Extractive Industrial” in the Township’s Zoning Bylaw.

The plan is for Arbour Farms to extract up to 500,000 tonnes of gravel from the site per year for around 25 years, given the fact there is a total of 8.7 million tonnes available in the deposit. Extraction is proposed to extend no more than 20 metres below the water table, and shipping would be limited to 7 am to 6 pm Monday to Thursday and 7 am to 12 noon Friday from March to October, and 8 am to 5 pm Monday to Thursday and 8 am to 12 noon Friday from November to February.

According to Zeman, it’s rare to find such a gravel deposit on negligible farmland (the property consists of Class 4 to 7 agricultural land), with no significant environmental features, within 500 metres of only two homes and sitting on an arterial road.

But residents who stood to speak questioned the suitability of Airport Road for an influx of truck traffic, with its large hills, narrow shoulders and lack of passing lanes. As it stands, Arbour Farms is proposing a turning lane at the entrance to the gravel pit, but no other road improvements.

“This proposal threatens not only our way of life as Mulmur residents, but it threatens the lives of those who travel on Airport Road,” said Michael Monahan.

“Thirteen years ago my father was killed by one of those trucks,” said another resident, before appealing directly to the members of Mulmur Council. “Please, use your common sense – there will be blood on your hands on Airport Road if you approve this and let it go through.”

Jane Pepino, the chair of CORE (Conserving Our Rural Environment), the citizen’s group that has been opposing the Arbour Farms proposal since it first became public over a decade ago, listed CORE’s objections in four areas: noise, traffic, natural environment and planning. She urged those present to donate to the organization to help fund any OMB appeal that might become necessary in the future.

According to Brandon Ward of Cuesta Planning, the firm working for Mulmur Township on the file, a report could come back to Council on the application sometime this summer. Arbour Farm’s ARA application has not yet been approved.

Cadets show off end-of-year skills

The 1944 Electrical Mechanical Engineer Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps of Creemore held their Annual Cadet Review last Sunday at the Creemore Arena.

The parade is the summation of the accomplishments of each cadet from September to June. Awards were presented to various cadets to acknowledge their achievements, and numerous displays and demonstrations were provided by cadets to illustrate the knowledge and skills acquired over this training year including fitness, marksmanship, orienteering skills and the drill team.

The reviewing party for the parade included Reviewing Officers, Commandant CFSEME Lieutenant-Colonel J.D. Bower, CD, Commanding Officer Captain William Banks, CD ; Regional Cadet Advisor Major Blair Donnelly, CD and 1944 EME Sponsor Committee Chair Norm Nordstrom.

In attendance was Dr. Kellie Leitch, Member of Parliament for Simcoe-Grey, who posed with the cadets for the above picture.

LILIES FOR A CAUSE This Saturday and next, Nottawasaga Daylilies will continue to raise funds for the renovation of Avening Hall. Tom Wilson (above) will be at the Creemore Farmers’ Market with two plants named in memory of Avening residents: “Julie Catherine” (named for Julie Rainbird-Kendrick) and “Rachel Stephens.” Proceeds from the sale of these plants will be contributed to Avening Hall. These plants were registered with the American Hemerocallis Society by Julie Wilson in 2006 and 2008 respectively.

EDITORIAL The voice of the public

It's been a long time since we've been to a public meeting as one-sided as the one that dealt with the possible rezoning and redesignation of the Arbour Farms property to allow for gravel extraction last Saturday.

Back in the day, there were some contentious meetings in Stayner regarding the 500-home Alliance Homes subdivision that was eventually approved for the east side of Creemore. But even at those meetings, "barnburners" by any definition, there were always one or two people brave enough to stand up in support of the proposal, pointing out that new homes meant new people to support our always struggling downtown.

The Duntroon quarry expansion public meetings, while drawing many people staunchly opposed to the plan, were always tempered by the employees of Walker Aggregates who could vouch for the company and point out what a good corporate citizen it had always been.

The Highland Quarry application and the two Clearview wind power proposals were never the subject of a proper public meeting – in the first case because the application was withdrawn and in the second because the Green Energy Act does not require such a thing – so it's impossible to speculate whether any supporters would have spoken up.

Last Saturday, however, the mood in the room was quite clear. Of the 150 people or so there, it's quite possible that the only ones in support of the application were the proponent and his planners.

What that means for the future of the application is impossible to say, however. Unfortunately, in this day of OMB appeals and judicial hearings, public opinion does not always win the day.

LETTER

Conservation over instant gratification

To the Editor:

With all due respect to the folks who have been writing in so eloquently about the problems with wind turbines, gravel pits, solar panels etc., I would like to make a comment: no one wants these "things" in their back yard (I, in fact do have a gravel pit across the road) but if we want to have all the conveniences to which we have become accustomed then we will have to put up with them.

However, we can lessen the necessity for them by conserving! Hydro One puts out good information on how we can conserve and if everyone did their part, ie. hanging their washing on a line outside or in the basement, not using the dishwasher or dryer, taking shorter and/or less showers, baking on weekends or after 9 pm, using lights only when necessary, turning off the air conditioning and turning down the heat, we could reduce the amount of energy required and therefore maybe, just maybe, we would not have this controversy over wind turbines for electricity, gravel pits for roads, etcetera.

We can no longer afford to have instant gratification. We must begin to conserve to save our planet for future generations.

Lana Bryant, Glencairn

THE WAY WE WERE

Here's another great selection from Viola Rawn's collection of photographs of the original Mill Street paving in 1928, brought in to us by Reg Rawn. This one has us a bit confused as to its location. The original steeple of St. John's United Church is clearly seen on the left side of the picture, but we're having a hard time identifying the building directly behind the paving apparatus. And speaking of the apparatus, can anyone fill us in on the purpose of this impressive machine?

LETTER

ARA trumps community opinion

Dear Editor,

I attended Mulmur's public meeting re: the proposed Arbour Farms gravel pit and was surprised to hear the shock and indignation in the voices of the people who asked Adam Krehm "why are you doing this to us?" The answer is simple – 9 million tonnes of extractable aggregate material multiplied by $8/tonne (assuming the same revenue as limestone) for a $72 million opportunity. In addition, the Mulmur property nestled in the scenic hills of Airport Road would finish with a private pond and be prime for development after rehabilitation. Few of us could pass up such a windfall.

More to the point is Ontario's Aggregate Resources Act (ARA) that encourages the Krehm brothers to take advantage of Mulmur's subterranean riches. The ARA does not require that the proponent prove a need for the product. It specifies that aggregate be dug "close to market." It allows aggregate to be dug in environmentally protected space. It does not require that below-water-table proposals be subject to an environmental assessment. It does not encourage use of recycled material. It does not account for the full cost of extraction on taxpayers. It does not take people's health, property values or enjoyment of property into consideration. It does not protect farmland or source water. And it does not listen when a local community says "no."

Arbour Farms' proposal is yet another example of why the ARA must be updated with today's values of food security, clean water for all, environmentally protected space, endangered species protection, resource conservation, waste elimination, openness and transparency. Dufferin, Grey and Simcoe counties are prime aggregate extractive areas. If we don't change the ARA today, riding on the wave of mega-quarry shock and indignation, then this generation and the next will be subject to many more proposals. This is a critical juncture and now is the time to speak up.

Creemore Big Heart Seniors

Our attendance stood at 51 this week, and we spent a few minutes discussing our upcoming catered lunch. We then went to the 50/50 draws, which went to Alma Seifert, Marg Hennessey, Dave Smith, Karl Seifert, Mercedes Veinot, Lillian Hiltz, Irma Flack and Norma Johnston.

Moon shots were played by Phyllis Seed, Dave Smith, Marg Ferguson, Wilma Bannerman, Lillian Hiltz, Brian McGill, John Van Voorst (2), Norma Johnston, June Hartley (2), Pat Broad, Wilma Zeggil, Judith Turner, Paul Turner and Phyllis Seed again. Phyllis won the travelling prize and Dave took the Sidewinders loot.

High scorers were Judith Turner 318, Ray Broad 295, Norma Johnston 282 and June Hartley 281. Low was Wilma Zeggil with 87.

Our best wishes goes out to Jean Lune who is in the hospital at the present time. We have no particulars as to what she has been hospitalized with, but we all certainly hope you are soon feeling much better, Jean.

For our catered lunch, we were given the option of mixed pies for dessert, or a mixture of various desserts. A show of hands showed an overwhelming choice of a variety of pies.

GALE

Last week, I put Dave Smith's low score in capital letters in the Seniors News that I e-mailed to the Creemore Echo. What a great Editor we have, as he printed this exactly as submitted! I wasn't sure this would happen, but Dave is a good sport, and I thought it would be cute to "tweak" him. You just have to love an Editor that agrees with you – even when you are not sure you are right! Thanks, Brad. So, after "tweaking" our Vice-President last week, this week I discovered that Eileen Nash and President Ray Leighton were two people who had a terrible run of cards today, and they did not get to move from the first table until the sixth game, which gives me a chance to "tweak" the Prez as well!

Sorry to read about Georgi's mother passing away recently – if I have that right from reading last week's Echo. Georgi is also a great person at the Echo. Always alert, friendly, obliging, very aware – and always with a smile, as are all the folks who keep the Echo running.

Our sympathy also goes out to Kathy (Streigle) Meeser and her sons Rolfe and Frank and families on the sudden passing of Joe last Saturday. The Meesers have the wood business and the lovely houses at the top of the hill going south from Cashtown.

We would also like to send a Happy (belated) Birthday to Florence Bremner in Singhampton, with best wishes for many more!

Last week Maurice Weatherall had his grandson Jamie Noble up to stay with him for a week or so. This worked out really well for us all, as Jamie did quite a bit of odds and ends at Maurice's, and then he trimmed up our shaggy street to the west in our hamlet of Avening, using Maurice's Bushhog, which improves the appearance of the street immensely. Our thanks goes out to both Jamie and Maurice for sprucing up the hamlet because, as we all know, Creemore is a suburb of Avening, and we do need to keep up appearances so we can keep Creemore aware of this!

Also our thanks to Allan Thompson for cutting the front ditch recently. All you have to do is give this land a bit of rain, and suddenly it seems as if we are living in the tropics, to judge by the height of the grass!

Warren thanks all the kids for the calls and the Father's Day gifts. He loved them all, but the chocolate cake brought in by Ron and Louie was right here, right now, instant gratification, which immediately turned him into a six-year-old again!

What does heritage mean to you?

Clearview Township will host a Heritage Conservation Open House on Tuesday, June 25 from 3 to 7 pm at the Administration Centre in Stayner.

Following up on previous municipal projects including cultural mapping and culture days, the municipality is hosting the open house to assess the public's interest in heritage conservation and what, if warranted, a program should look like.

"The main intent of the open house is to understand what concerns the public may or may not have and what specific interests they have in preserving heritage in the municipality," stated Michael Wynia, the Township's Director of Community Planning and Development. "As staff, we are trying to assess what is most important to residents in terms of heritage and then we can focus on developing tools and programs to achieve these."

General information about existing heritage resources and processes for dealing with heritage resources will be provided. There will be no specific program outlined, but examples under consideration include the possibility of the designation of significant heritage landscapes as an initial stage in looking at heritage planning and preservation.

For further information on the Heritage Conservation Open House, the Clearview Planning Department at 705-428-6230 Ext 242.

PROFESSIONAL SLUDGE REDUCTION PELLETS

"Sludge reduction pellets offer the customer control over organic material in their ponds."

Use through the summer months to get rid of bottom sludge; Greatly reduce the need for heavy equipment clean out. Very simple to use, spot treat swimming area sludge or treat whole pond.

See full details on our new website

SPRING REPAIR & TUNE-UP SERVICES

When you purchase equipment for your pond to keep the water clean, over time parts can wear out or break down. If you have a fountain, aeration system or a Keonders windmill, we are happy to help maintain and service them.

On our new web site we have a lot of troubleshooting ideas that will give our customers ideas of what to look for before they call. This way between us, we can troubleshoot the problem or help us know what parts to bring with us to save you money and time.

New Lowell News

Summer greetings from New Lowell!

Summer arrives this week and I think we are all ready for some summer fun. Please encourage the children to be aware of safety, whether it be on the roads with bikes, swimming or other events.

Talking about safety, it has been brought to my attention yet again that some youth are using the library and church parking lots as skateboard/bicycle parks by jumping over boulders and tree stumps. This is very dangerous and we would like to discourage this use of private property. It might be time for the New Lowell community to spark some interest in a skateboard park for the youth in the village. Many small communities offer these parks and they are safe and well-used.

When out for an evening walk on Wednesday nights visit the New Lowell

NEW LOWELL NEWS

Sandra BEDNAREK

Market at the Recreation Park. There are various vendors for you to browse around. From yummy pies, fresh baking, knitting, flowers, maple syrup and flavourful international cooking.

On Tuesday, June 25 at 3 pm, the Clearview Library kicks off their Summer programming schedule with a Cake and Pizza Party compliments of Saunders Book Company and Boston Pizza at each one of their three branches in Creemore, Stayner and Sunnidale. Plan to pick up your TD Summer Reading registration and meet their new summer students who will be leading the formal literacy arts and crafts sessions during July and August.

Clearview Community Theatre will hold more open auditions for their fall musical of "The Music Man" on Friday, June 21 from 7 to 9 pm at the Stayner Church of the Good Shepherd. For more details and audition instructions visit www.clearviewcommunitytheatre1.ca or call Gren Bray at 705-428-2600.

The Creemore Pastoral Charge will have three full regular services until June 30 and then for the first few weeks in July Avening United will host the one service at 10:15 a.m. Please check the church services in the Echo for other one service dates.

The New Lowell United Church thanks all of those who attended and took part on the occasion of their 140th Anniversary on June 9. The Sunday School of New Lowell will hold their wrap-up party on Wednesday, June 26 immediately following school. There will be fun activities, food and presentations.

Do you like to golf? Well we have the tournament for you! On Sunday, August 25 please join the New Lowell United Church for a Golf Tournament. We welcome foursomes that will kick off at 1:30 pm with a cart/18 holes/prizes and a delicious beef dinner all for $100 (some of which will be receipted for tax purposes). This takes place at the Wasaga Sands Golf Course. Please call Tom Macham at 424-0579 for further information. We are looking for donation of prizes or sponsorship of a hole at the golf course. For these items contact Sandra at 424-6497 or sandra@bednarek.ca

This event will continue to help our thermometer grow for our "Accessibility for All" project. This project will help our "old" church be more welcoming for all, as well as provide added community use space for all ages. Please help us, by supporting some of our events.

The family of Nora Snow invite you to celebrate her 90th birthday on Saturday, July 13 at the New Lowell Legion from 2 to 4 pm. Your smile and best wishes are all that are necessary for this event.

Next week some little tykes and young youth will celebrate graduation in our schools. At New Lowell Public the Senior Kindergarten class will graduate to Grade 1 on Tuesday, June 25 at 2 pm and the Grade 8 youth will celebrate their special event on Tuesday, June 25 at 7 pm. Good luck to all of these graduates and to all of our older youth who have graduated from University or Colleges this spring. Life is full of learning and moving up into a higher learning environment or choosing their profession is a huge step for all of them!

This will likely be my last column before we celebrate Canada Day. I hope you are able to celebrate our wonderful country and all that it offers us as its citizens. Let's try to remember all of our ancestors that made this homeland! Happy Canada Day, July 1, 2013.

If you have some New Lowell News please call me at 705-424-6497 or email me at sandra@bednarek.ca

You'll get a warm welcome and cold beer.

At Creemore Springs we take pride in introducing folks to the great taste of our beer and showing them how we make it. So the next time you're near the town of Creemore, drop by the brewery, the hospitality is on us.

The AVRIDGE FARM

by JEFF WILSON

FRED'S FUNNIES

An old man walking along the river bank suddenly spotted a boy drowning in the river. When the man started shouting "Help! Help! I can't swim!" a man passing by the road shouted back, "Will you ever grow up! I also can't ride a bicycle but you'll never hear me yelling about it in the street!"

June 14 Answer

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all our family and friends who have supported us during these past eight weeks since Roy's accident.

Special thanks to "all" who sent cards, flowers, food, phone calls, inquiries, donations and provided transportation to the hospital.

Heartfelt thanks to Amanda's parents: Sandy and Jamie for all of their support and love during this sad time. "We could not have done this without you."

To Roy's fellow workers at the Mad River Golf Club sincere thanks for all your help and assistance at the time of his accident and your continuing support to our family.

To the Ross Tilley Burn Unit team at Sunnybrook Hospital. Our deepest respect and gratitude for the wonderful care they gave to Roy each and every day. They were simply amazing.

To Fawcett Funeral Home our deepest gratitude for all the personal attention given to us at this time. To Jim for your compassion, direction and care, Michael for the wonderful video tribute and Andrew for your support and friendship.

To Rev. Tony Rennett for his words of comfort and the United Church Women for the lovely luncheon provided after the service.

A simple "Thank you" doesn't seem to be enough to express our appreciation for the love and support that we have been shown during this difficult time.

Roy will always remain in our hearts and be "Forever Young"

Sincerely, Anne, Chris, Amanda, Jacob, Jack & Cole Emerton

The taste of summer

Summer officially arrives this Friday and with it comes the annual strawberry harvest.

Anyone wanting to partake in the ultimate taste of the season has three opportunities to do so this weekend, while at the same time supporting local community groups.

On Friday, June 21, St. Paul’s Anglican Church in Singhampton will host a Strawberry Supper from 5 to 7 pm. On Saturday, June 22, Knox Presbyterian Church in Dunedin will host a Strawberry Supper from 4:30 to 7 pm. And finally, on Sunday, June 23, the Avening United Church will host a Strawberry Social at the Avening Hall from 2 to 4 pm.

Wind Power to Grow

“Wind is a clean, natural, renewable energy source which helps local farmers, communities and economies.

Dufferin Wind Power is building a responsible wind farm in co-operation with these landowners who choose to participate.”
