BIA REQUESTS CHANGES TO VENDOR BY-LAW

By Kristi Green

As the only community in Clearview with a Business Improvement Area (BIA), Creemore could receive special approval status for a new by-law that would permit mobile vendors in the Township, if Council OKs it.

On June 11, members of Clearview Township met with local business owners to address concerns about the proposed by-law.

At the meeting, BIA members aired their concerns about the possible threat mobile vendors posed to their businesses.

"Creemore doesn't have many stores left and we need to protect what we've got," said Cheryl Robertson, owner of House of Stitches.

However, Township Clerk Pamela Fettes pointed out that as the only BIA in Clearview, the Township might be able to include special concessions for Creemore in the by-law, if they are approved by Council.

"Creemore is unique in that it is the only community in all of Clearview that has a BIA district," explained Fettes. "Because you have a BIA, [the by-law] could make provisions around the BIA district."

Wilson re-elected

Although he's disappointed in the ultimate choice Ontarians' made in last week's election, Progressive Conservative Simcoe-Grey MPP Jim Wilson says he'll still get things done at Queen's Park.

On June 12, the Liberals were promoted to a majority government after taking 38.6 per cent of the popular vote and increasing the number of their representatives to 59. The Conservatives lagged behind with only 27 seats and 31.2 per cent of the vote, while the New Democrat Party took 21 seats and 24 per cent of the vote.

However, in his own riding, Wilson swept to victory in with 47.14% of the vote (26,238 votes), holding on to a position he has defended since 1990.

"I was disappointed on a province-wide basis, but elated on a local level," Wilson said.

In Simcoe-Grey, runner-up Liberal party candidate Lorne Kenney took 31.24 per cent of the vote (17,385 votes), followed by the NDP's David Matthews with 14.08 per cent (7,837 votes). The Green's Jessica Dudun garnered 7.54 per cent, with 4,198 votes.

"I've been in this position before," said Wilson, who represented the Simcoe-Grey riding in Queen's GOODBYE TO 142 YEARS — On Sunday, June 22, Avening United Church will hold its last service. Read more about it in the article on page 5.

TORNADO STRIKES ANGUS

Essa Township declared a state of emergency on Tuesday evening after a tornado damaged about 100 houses in Angus.

The Township of Angus was the worst hit by a series of storms throughout southern Ontario. At 5:20 pm, the tornado travelled east from Angus to Barrie for 15 minutes.

Although the 175 km/hr winds caused millions of dollars in damage and left thousands of people without power, no injuries were reported.

Three hundred people were evacuated from their homes.

Emergency services (including the Clearview Fire Department) and volunteers provided relief for evacuees at the Angus Arena/Nottawsaga Pines Secondary School.

Emergency officials in Angus are assessing the damage on a house-by-house basis before deciding when people can return to their homes.

People who would like to donate food, money or clothing to residents can take them to Ray's Place at 146 Mill Street. Volunteers are collecting non-perishable foods, bottled water, food vouchers, toiletries for babies and adults, laundry soap, individually bagged snacks, tools and cleaning supplies.

By-law could be good for other areas

Fettes suggested that Council could make the BIA a commenting agency for enforcing the by-law.

In an email to the Echo after the meeting, BIA President Corey Finkelstein said, “We don’t think there is anything wrong with the current by-law... The BIA is not opposed to food trucks in Clearview Township, however, we are very concerned about the impact mobile vendors may have on our members or our ability to control special events.”

Finkelstein also confirmed the BIA would seek special status as a recommending agency for the by-law.

The Creemore BIA is a Committee of Council that consists of 70 business and property owners. It was established in 1987 to promote, maintain and beautify the downtown area.

The BIA district consists of a stretch of Mill Street from north of Francis Street to Edward Street, as well as Caroline Street West.

To date, no other groups in Clearview have contacted the Township with concerns about the by-law.

Ward 6 Councillor Deb Bronée said that while the prospect of mobile vendors might not jive with Creemore’s vision of itself, other areas of the Township (such as the baseball park in New Lowell) could benefit from having them.

“We have a huge municipality... and this could be good for other areas of the Township such as New Lowell,” Bronée said.

Fettes agreed, telling the BIA members: “We need to develop something that’s palatable for you but that works for other communities, as well.”

Clearview’s Deputy Clerk Brenda Falls said the Planning Department gets many calls every year from people requesting permission for mobile vendors to sell food and goods in the Township.

“There are just as many people in other parts of Clearview who want it as people who don’t want it,” she said. “The by-law is to allow for vending intended to provide basic health and safety procedures to the public and to protect the municipality from potential associated liabilities.”

At the BIA meeting, some members expressed concern that the look and smell of food trucks would detract from the charm of the village.

Others were worried about the proximity of mobile vendors to their businesses.

“That wouldn’t be allowed under this by-law,” said Joe Paddock, Clearview’s Senior By-Law Enforcement Officer. “They would have to be 200 metres away.”

“That’s too close!” countered Robertson.

But not all members see the issue as being so black and white. The 100 Mile Store’s Jackie Durnford pointed out that a critical mass of vendors will attract more people to the village.

The BIA has registered a delegation with the Township at its Monday, July 14 Council meeting.

Until then, a subcommittee will conduct meetings to fine tune proposed amendments to the by-law. Then it is up to Council to decide which amendments are made.

election. Howlett moved to New Lowell a few years ago. When asked why he has chosen to step up to the plate, he said, “If you’re not prepared to do something about [the situation], then you don’t have the right to complain.”

PCs “shot ourselves in the foot”

Park under Bob Rae’s NDP government from 1990 to 1995. “We are still able to do good things.”

First on Wilson’s to-do list is putting a halt to the wpd wind turbines.

“We need to convince the Liberals immediately not to put windmills near the Clearview or Collingwood Airports or there will be deaths,” Wilson told the Echo. “This is urgent!”

Affordable hydroelectricity will be another major concern for Wilson when he reconvenes at Queen’s Park at the beginning of July.

“I hope the Liberals steal our ideas for affordable hydro,” he said. “They keep signing windmill and solar contracts, but they need to change that and get on with getting out of the Green Energy Plan.”

Wilson will also be working on the redevelopment of the Collingwood General and Marine Hospital and Stevenson Memorial Hospital in Alliston.

“Over the next four years we will be working on getting the planning grants,” he said. “We need about $4 million for each hospital and it will take a long time to raise community funds. If we don’t come forward in the next four years, the quality of services and the deaths of patients will be on the Liberals’ consciences.”

Jim Wilson

The MPP added that he will also fight for funds for hospices in both Collingwood and Alliston.

According to this House Leader of Her Majesty’s Loyal Opposition, it was the unions that let the Tories down in this election.

“We were defeated by 20 large unions that didn’t necessarily tell the truth,” Wilson said.

He explained that the Conservatives’ “Million Jobs Plan” to cut 100,000 management jobs within the government didn’t include nurses, police officers, physicians and other front-line workers. However, the campaign was harmed by publicity from groups such as the Ontario Nurses’ Association.

“I think 20 unions beat us and we shot ourselves in the foot to reduce the cost of government and get the deficit under control,” Wilson said.

development charge is the fee developers must pay for existing services on a lot. For a copy of the proposed by-law and background study, call 705-428-6230 or visit www.clearview.ca. The meeting will be held at 6 pm at 217 Gideon Street in Stayner.

Motorcycle tyranny

How long will Mulmur taxpayers be required to endure the speed, noise and abuse of hundreds of "crotch rockets" and "hogs" (Harleys), disrespecting our community? Cars must have effective mufflers and emissions tests before they use the roads. Why not motorcycles?

The latest hazards are "racketeers" leaning over the yellow line – just like the racers at Mosport. So far, this year, my wife and I have twice been forced to hit the road shoulder to avoid crashes.

On the May 2-4 weekend, hordes of motorcycles used 20 SR/River Road. In one hour, I counted 127 "bikers" – more than half were speeders, and just as many with loud noises "blowing out their pipes." How many more bodies will our emergency responders have to pick up from ditches?

Our Councils have choices: to continue to ignore the problem, to insist that our roads are continually patrolled by police (not only as pay duty officers), to post signs warning motorcyclists that their speed and mufflers will be checked, to put speed bumps on the straightaways, etc.

Local residents – especially cyclists, horse riders, walkers and families with children – are prevented from enjoying their surroundings. And Dufferin County risks losing visitors to cultural events if weekends are not safe on our roads.

Council must stand up for their citizens! Otherwise, citizens may have to act on their own: blockades, signs, etc...!

Yours disgustedly,

Dick Byford, Mulmur

Avening Church's last service this Sunday

By Myrtle Carruthers

The Avening Church has had a long and interesting history during the past 142 years.

The Avening community was established in 1860. There was no church in the village at that time, so the children met for Sunday School under the Superintendent John Pengelly at the Banda Methodist Church built in 1863.

It was reported by Reverend James Woodsworth in his 1870-71 report that "the Friends of Avening Village have determined to erect a church to cost about $700."

Avening was first a separate mission in 1872. The Church was opened in February of that year with Reverend V. Wilson as Minister.

The present building is on the same site and is the original Church, except that it was raised and bricked in 1924.

In 1925, the Methodist Church became the United Church of Canada.

In 1937, the Church was wired for electricity. Previously, it had been illuminated by Duncan Carruthers' power plant at the mill.

Over the years, we have celebrated many happy occasions. A most important one was the installation of our beautiful eight stained glass windows in 1948 and 1948, when Reverend A. G. Eagle was our Minister. It is interesting to note here that the "Young People's" window will find its new home in the Eagle Chapel at Mt.

Avening United Church Centennial on June 25, 1972

Zion, which was built in 1978.

Since 1903, Garden Parties (or Strawberry Suppers as we call them today), were the highlight of fundraising and social gatherings each June.

Did you know that on June 28, 1947, a ticket for Supper and Program was only 75 cents? And children were 40 cents?

Avening will hold its last service on Sunday, June 22 at 9 am, with Reverend Tony Rennett officiating and Ben Tupling playing piano. (Reverend Tony has been with us for 10 years.)

We will miss our special place of worship each Sunday, but let us always remember:

"The Church is wherever God's people are helping, Caring for neighbours in sickness and need. The Church is wherever God's people are sharing The words of the Bible in gift and in deed."

– Carol Rose Ikeler, 1959

We have been truly blessed and give thanks to everyone who shared in our 142-year Faith Journey.

It's bye-bye Beavers for longtime Leaders

By Kristi Green

With Creemore's longtime volunteer Beavers Leaders retiring from the position, Scouts Canada is looking for new Leaders to run the group.

Cathy Traverse (known to her Beavers as "Malick") first got involved with Scouting Canada when her younger son, Tim, was five. He was about to start school, but Cathy thought he was a little too attached to his mother. So, she enrolled him in Beavers at the Creemore Legion Hall to help the little guy with separation.

One week in, the Leader said the program could close without help from parent volunteers. So, Cathy signed up for some training and started helping out.

"I thought, OK, I'll be a parent volunteer and that's it," Cathy explained.

Later that year, the Leader quit the group for good, leaving Cathy with a colony of little Beavers on her hands.

Thirty-two years – and about 100 overnight camping trips – later, Cathy has guided about 500 Beavers through the program.

In that time, she has witnessed many changes to the Scouting organization. One of the most major changes was welcoming girls to the group about 20 years ago, which Cathy describes as being "great."

Over the years, Cathy's involvement with the organization bloomed. She became Group Chair for Creemore's Beavers, Cubs and Scouts in 2009.

The next year, she organized the 100th Anniversary of Scouting celebrations at Burl's Creek, which featured parachuters jumping out of the sky and military tanks rolling up the road.

She has also clocked many volunteer hours,

with planning meetings, weekly Beaver meetings, sleepovers, special events and fundraising activities.

"It was a lot of time, but it was worth it," Cathy said. "It was all pretty special."

Cathy is quick to point out that she hasn't done it alone. Fellow Leaders Leah Bailey (known to the Beavers as "Rainbow") and Lyle Noble ("Hawkeye") have been at her side for the last 15 and 17 years, respectively. Once the program finishes next week, Leah will also retire and Lyle will take on a new position with the organization.

"We're like a family," said Cathy of her co-Leaders. "We have such a bond; we feed off each other's feelings."

Cathy also credits her husband, Wayne, and the others' spouses, for their support.

This weekend, Cathy, Leah and Lyle will take their group of eight Beaver boys and girls to Acton for their last overnight camping trip. For Cathy, the highlight of these trips is seeing kids overcome things they didn't think they could do.

"On a hike, they'll say they can't cross a rope bridge, and we'll say, yes, you can! And their faces will light up when they reach the end," explained Cathy. "But I won't miss waking up every couple of hours to make sure they haven't fallen out of their bunk beds!"

While Cathy says she'll miss the kids, she is looking forward to catching up on episodes of "Duck Dynasty" and spending more time with her four grandchildren who live in Barrie.

With the departure of its Leaders, the Creemore Beavers is now looking for a new leader. If you are interested, call Betsey Wright, Group Chair at 705-466-2654.

Street hockey players

Canada Day street hockey

By Shawn Hughson

As July 1 falls on a Tuesday this year, the Canada Day Street Hockey Fundraiser will take place the Saturday prior, on June 28.

Creemore's Elizabeth Street East will be shut down to Library Street to become 3-on-3 street hockey rinks complete with plywood endboards and hay bale borders.

The Old Mill House Pub and the Creemore Sunday Night Hockey League sponsor the event, which includes a beer garden, live music (from 12:30 to 4:30 pm), raffles, a kid's corner and a 50/50 draw in the form of a shootout competition (at 5 pm).

Register individually or as a team at the Old Mill House Pub, or by contacting Shawn Hughson at 705-796-7536. The fee is $10 per player.

Proceeds raised from this event will go to the Cybergnomes robotics program, which will have a demonstration at the event at 4:30 pm. This year, the Cybergnomes placed within the top 64 out of 2,720 teams from around the world.

The Cybergnomes program is geared to local high school students. The benefits to the students are enormous. Along with things like engineering skills development, mathematics, computer-assisted design, programming, wiring, machining and welding, students learn teamwork, leadership skills, communication, design and more. Students broaden their experiences and increase confidence by travelling outside our communities to compete.

New students are always welcome! Building and meetings happen at JT Snowmobile in New Lowell. Anyone interested can check out www.cybergnomes.ca.

Creemore Big Heart Seniors

We had nine tables for cards and Lucky Draws were won by Janice Stephens, May Johnston, Judith Turner, Evelyn Warden, Norma Johnston and Pat Broad.

Moon Shots were played by Barb Pilon, Pat Broad and Effie Taylor, with the travel prize going to Marion Kelly.

Winners for cards were Lois Walker 306, Lillian Hiltz 292, Marcia Cameron 259 and Leona Hartling 259, and the low prize went to Mr. Dave Smith. (He really must choose better partners.) Just teasing, Dave!

June 15 was Decoration Day at the cemetery and it was a lovely service. Also on Sunday was the Annual Final Parade for the Cadets. Norm Nordstrom, Convener for the Canada Day Celebration, came and personally thanked us for our donation to this event.

Our count for the roast beef dinner on June 19 was 40 persons, however, many of our members were away working at the polling booths, so we are sure we will have a far greater number than 40 in the future.

I have always wondered why we were called the Big Heart Seniors. In case you did not know, it originated from the Irish Croi Mor meaning "big heart."

Remember: Taking time to do nothing often brings everything into perspective.

Golfing when the rough is tough

By Debbie Clum
The spring can be wet and cool. Consequently, when the heat comes, so does the rough. The rough will be thicker and harder to hit from. Here are a few tips to make this task easier:

Determine your lie: ball sitting on top; ball halfway down; ball all the way down; and all in tall grass or fescue.

- Ball sitting on top:
- Ball position in stance same as on fairway.
 - Use same club as you would on the fairway.
 - Key to this lie is to address the ball at the level the ball is in the rough. If you address it too low, it is very easy to swing under the ball and pop it up.

- Ball half way down:
- Play the ball further back than normal.
 - Use more lofted woods or irons.
 - Key is to pick up the club with the shoulders turning, so your angle of attack is steeper than normal. This prevents less grass getting between the club and ball at impact.

- Ball all the way down
- Play ball back in stance.
 - Put weight on your left foot and keep it there on the back swing.
 - Use more lofted woods and irons.
 - Key is to keep weight on left foot so your angle of attach is much steeper than normal.

- Ball in tall grass or fescue.
- Ball off right foot.
 - Weight totally on the left foot (no weight transfer on back swing).
 - Pick club up with the shoulders turning and hit down.
 - Use wedges and get the ball back onto the fairway.

The rough can be tough. So, the deeper the ball is sitting, the further back you play the ball in your stance and the more weight you put on the left foot, resulting in a steeper angle of attack. This will prevent too much grass from getting between the club and ball at impact.

Starting summer vacation in New Lowell

There isn't a nicer time of year when spring has sprung and is leading into summer. Take a walk around the village and you will see green luscious grass, lovely flowers and busy people out walking, riding or just visiting with neighbours. Oh, it is great to live a small, safe neighbourhood!

The Seniors invite you to join them at 1:30 pm on Wednesday for an afternoon of euchre at the New Lowell Legion. It is a delightful way to spend an afternoon with friends.

The New Lowell United Church will be hosting a Golf Tournament on Saturday, June 21 at the Wasaga Sands Golf and Country Club starting at 1:30 pm. If you are reading this on Friday, July 20, you still have time to call Tom Macham at 705-424-0579 to book a place. It is a real deal – you get 18 holes of golf, a cart, prizes galore and a tasty roast beef dinner all for $110. You will be receipted for some of this amount. If you would like to join us for just the meal, it is $25. This is our annual fundraiser for our Accessibility fund. The Contractor will start our new addition to the church in early March, 2015.

Avening United Church will have its last service in the 142-year-old church on Sunday, June 22. This service will be a "family" service for all of the families that have worshiped there in the past and present. Reverend

NEW LOWELL NEWS

Sandra
BEDNAREK

Tony Rennett will lead the congregation through this difficult, but also joyous, service. After June 22, the Creemore United Church Pastoral Charge will be a two-point charge with St. John's United Church in Creemore and New Lowell United Church.

Starting on Sunday, June 29, and for the month of July, there will be one service at 10:15 am at St. John's. In August, the services will be at New Lowell United. Beginning in the fall, you are welcome to worship at 9:45 am at New Lowell United or at 11 am at St. John's on Sundays.

The children at the New Lowell Central Public School are getting ready for their summer vacation. The week of June 23 will be busy with graduation, class programs, and, I am sure, some cleaning out of those desks! A thank you to all of the staff at the public school for a successful year with all of our children.

Please watch for the children on the roads as they are riding bikes and running with their friends. The community says a very important thank you to Laura Macham for doing an outstanding job of making sure our children get to school safely while having to cross a busy road. Thanks, Laura, for your year as a Crossing Guard!

To Jane Anderson, the school secretary who answers phone calls, deals with children, staff and parents, plus all the other office duties throughout the day, we say a big thanks for a job well done.

A certain very busy member of our village celebrated a special birthday on June 6. She is a kind and gentle person who loves to help out her church, family and friends. Happy Birthday, M.M.

Don't forget our Farmers' Market on Wednesday evenings from 6 pm til dusk. You will be surprised with all of the crafts, flowers and home baking. It surely is a good place to meet those neighbours who have been shut in during the nasty winter months. So come over to the Recreation Park and enjoy a nice village evening. You also might take in a soccer or baseball game on the same night.

Talking about soccer, the TV at my house has been on all day every day with the World Cup. This shouldn't be a surprise to those that know that "Mr. Soccer" lives with me! He sits and uses his referee skills from his lounging chair, and often he calls it before the referee blows the whistle. It is a fun time, but frankly I am glad it only comes every four years! Oh, yes we don't cheer for any particular team, just "watch and enjoy" – the best team will win! (From the "Book of Philosophy on Soccer" by F.B.!)

That's the news from in and around New Lowell. If you have anything to share, please contact Sandra (between 4 pm and 7pm) at 705-424-6497 or sandra@bednarek.ca.

The Commons:

A grassroots perspective

By Laura Wark

The Commons is a column dedicated to fostering community oriented ideas.

What a great time of year to wander outside barefoot while nursing a morning cup of coffee.

How we manage our lawns may be a reflection of our relationship to larger issues.

I've allowed my lawn to become less-maintained this season – there are some areas that are lush with wildflowers (and bumblebees, thank goodness).

In an effort to make responsible choices, I cut less often, and less area, and I hope my neighbours feel okay with this!

With all our modern conveniences, does a genetically modified plant that offers gorgeous, drought-resistant groundcover, that grows only two inches tall exist? (Never to be maintained!)

If you know of such an option, please share.

There must be other grassy notions being considered to live well in our society. Maybe one evening a week we might suspend lawn-cutting to take in a quiet night together?

What grassroots ideas are you nurturing?

If you have an idea about ways to improve your community, email info@creemore.com.

Running a marathon, bit by bit, with new NCPS program

By Abby Underhill

Marafun is a running program that we do at NCPS on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings before school. The goal of the eight-week program is to run a marathon – which is 42 km – by the end of it.

We run 400-metre laps of the school field and for each lap that we complete, we get a wristband. By the end of the half hour, we count how many wristbands we have and the number of laps we completed gets written down. We can go on the Marafun website to see how many kilometres we've run, or we can ask the parent helpers.

One thing that made it more fun was when we got a bracelet with one charm on it at our first session. Then each time we participated, we got a charm to add to our bracelet. Some people traded charms with each other.

We are now in our second last week. We've run about 20 times now, and I feel that the running is getting easier for me. I think other people thought this too, because lots of us are running more laps now than we did at the start. Some parents and teachers are helping, and sometimes they run with us.

We participated because it was something new to do and we could run with our friends. It wasn't competitive; we just had to keep moving for the whole half hour. Each session we could set a goal for how many laps we wanted to do that day, and then obviously our bigger goal is to complete an entire marathon. This is a pretty big goal but if you do it bit by bit, it is easier.

Abby Underhill is in Grade 7 at NCPS.
